

News Anchor 1: A local company is performing an act of kindness for the Hillsborough Education Foundation. How they are giving the organization a fresh look is what's right with Tampa Bay.

What's Right with Tampa Bay

Narrator: Windows at the Hillsborough Education Foundation are getting a much-needed cleaning.

FISH window cleaners cleaning the exterior windows of the historic Hillsborough Education Foundation building.

Kim Jowell: I've been here five years and they've never been cleaned.

Narrator: That's all changing thanks to Fish Window Cleaning. They've decided to do an act of kindness by cleaning the windows for free.

Cole Robinson – Owner of Fish Window Cleaning Tampa

Cole Robinson: There's nothing that feels better than just doing something out of the goodness of your heart. It can really brighten someone's day even if you're having a bad day yourself. It's amazing what it can do to turn things around.

FISH window cleaners cleaning the exterior windows of the historic Hillsborough Education Foundation building.

Narrator: The 100-year-old historic building has some unique architecture designs.

Kim Jowell – CEO, Hillsborough Education Foundation

Kim Jowell: You can see some of the colored frame and glass and so for us in the morning you can cast little lights we'll actually probably really get to experience that fully now.

Narrator: It's an experience that Fish Window Cleaning is glad to be part of.

FISH window cleaners cleaning interior windows of the Hillsborough Education Foundation.

Cole Robinson: I couldn't think of another organization that I am more excited about than Hillsborough Education Foundation and their beautiful historic building which can be a little intimidating for window cleaners, but it was actually a really great challenge for the team.

FISH window cleaners cleaning the exterior windows of the historic Hillsborough Education Foundation building.

Narrator: The non-profit's mission is to strengthen public education in Hillsborough County for students and teachers so getting the windows cleaned for free is a big help.

Kim Jowell: It's not something not for profits have resources to put towards and so for us this is an extra special thing.

FISH window cleaners cleaning the exterior windows of the historic Hillsborough Education Foundation building.

Narrator: Providing a random act of kindness for those who are making a big impact in the future of students and teachers in the Tampa Bay community.

News Anchor 1: I tell you what, the Hillsborough Education Foundation does amazing things for teachers because they have to spend so much out of their pocket and they really provide that but to have the Fish Window Cleaning do that for them, it's hard.

News Anchor 2: It's not an easy job. It's not just volunteering a couple hours. That's an incredible job.

News Anchor 1: It is.

News Anchor 2: It's a beautiful building and it deserves to deserve to look just perfect because of all the great work they do.

News Anchor 1: Outside and inside.

News Anchor 2: Well done. well done. Great to see or see through in this case.